

HAPPENINGS IN VERMONT

(Continued from Page Four)

CHARGE COUNTY

RANDOLPH.

Mrs. Mary Strong gave a "90" party Friday night. Mrs. Ernest Berger, who had been here with her sister, Mrs. John Berger, for the most of the week, returned Saturday to Woodville, N. H. Mrs. Edwin Scott of Thetford has been here for a week with her mother, Mrs. J. J. Treble, who has been ill for several days. Miss Bernice Stimpson of Roxbury is the guest of Mrs. James Mulvey.

Mrs. Martin Sumner of Brimfield was in town Saturday to visit her father, A. H. Plim, Jr. Mrs. Lydia Hatch of Brimfield arrived Saturday to make an official visit to the Woman's Relief Corps. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Johnson of Middlebury, who have been with Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Heath, returned home Saturday. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Spaulding was held at the Methodist Church Monday at two o'clock and burial was in Southview cemetery. Mrs. G. L. Stone has closed her home on Randolph avenue and gone to "The Maple" to board through the winter months. The ladies of Bethany Church packed a barrel of clothing to be sent South this week to the school in which Miss Bertha Hodges of this place is now principal.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Buck, Miss Alice Buck and Mrs. W. S. Buck went to Barre Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Royce, who had been secretary of the Rehearsal Ladies in the State for many years. Mrs. Fannie Richardson from Vancouver, Wash., arrived Monday to visit her cousin, Mrs. E. A. Shattuck.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. King of Woodstock, who have been here with Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. R. G. Morion, for several days, left for their home Monday. Miss Agnes C. O'Donnell and Miss Katherine C. Coan of Rutland, who were over Sunday guests of the Rev. P. O'Donnell, left Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stiles have gone to Moriah, N. Y., to remain for two weeks with Mr. Stiles' relatives. George Dumas was at home from Montpelier over Sunday with his family. Mrs. J. J. Treble accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Scott, to Barre Sunday night to pass the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. White of New York, after passing 10 days with their daughter, Mrs. C. P. Kenworthy. Mrs. Ellen Huntington was summoned to Burlington Monday morning by the critical illness of Edward Huntington, a former resident here. Mr. Huntington has suffered several shocks of paralysis, the last of which came Saturday and rendered his entire left side helpless. Mrs. M. M. Fuller, who has been here for two weeks with the family of P. E. Connor during the recovery of Mrs. Connor from her late accident, returned home Monday taking the two Connor boys home with her. The daughter, Mrs. S. S. White, who has been here with Mr. Connor to the home of his parents and his mother will have the care of the children until Mrs. Connor is able to return home from the sanatorium.

The Rev. Joseph Hamilton, the Rev. G. O. Howe, the Rev. G. E. Crawford and the Rev. G. E. Crawford of the Center went to Northfield Monday to attend a district conference. E. D. Griffith, a student at the Montpelier Seminary, was in town over Sunday, the guest of the Rev. and Mrs. G. E. Crawford. Mrs. James Seaborn returned to Rochester on Monday after passing most of last week with Mr. S. S. White.

Rev. J. F. Monday for Bethel. Mrs. Lizzie Heath of Amherst, Mass., and Mrs. Lizzie Heath of Springfield, who have been with Mrs. M. W. Campbell for several days, started Monday for their homes. The Rev. Frank Meizer entered the University at his home Monday evening.

Mrs. Ruth Williams, who has been for several weeks with Mrs. Alice Brown, returned to Lebanon, N. H., Tuesday. The Rev. Frank Metzger entertained the University club at his home Monday night. Principal Green of Randolph Center gave an address on "The Need of Reform in Our Country" at the home of Mrs. Huntington. Mrs. Huntington will have the charge of the club house at Sharon was in town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Skinner of Boston were in town over Sunday and Monday morning. Mr. Skinner went to the north part of the State to attend to business interests. Mrs. Skinner is with her mother, Mrs. Lillian Cleveland. Mr. and Mrs. George Tuckerman, who have sold their farm on Rutland Hill and are on their way to New York State for a permanent home, have been with Mr. and Mrs. C. Clark. Mrs. J. D. Wheeler of Bethel was in town on Tuesday. Mrs. Mary Montgomery, who has been failing for a few days, is no better and her condition is serious. Mrs. Larence daughter arrived from Keene Saturday on a short stay Tuesday. Guy Osha has recently added a new show window case for his front window. J. F. Lamson is now able to be at his front after being confined for a month. Mrs. Dell Harper of Providence, who has been with her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Rattos, returned home Tuesday night. The meeting of Bethany Church was held in the parish house Tuesday. Mrs. J. B. Adams gave a reading.

News has been received of the birth of a son, Hamilton Perkins, on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Perkins of Woodstock. Mrs. Perkins was Mabel Hamilton. The child is the grandson of the Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Adams of this place. Miss Rosa Connor left Wednesday morning for Orleans, where she will visit the Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Smithers and on Thursday will call on friends in Newport, after which she will start for Calumet, Minn., expecting to arrive there Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Packer of Middlebury arrived Wednesday to visit Mr. Packer's sister, Mrs. Joseph Hamilton. Mr. H. F. Tohey went to South Sutton, N. H., Wednesday to see her mother, Mrs. Davis, who is in poor health. The news of the marriage of G. W. Flagg of East Brattleboro, well known here, and Mrs. Bachelier of Berlin Tuesday was received by friends.

Mrs. Martin Sumner of Brimfield arrived Wednesday to be the guest of her father, A. H. Plim, Jr. for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peasey of Brattleboro have been in town for a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ketchum. The meeting of the Parent-Teacher association was held in the high school building Tuesday night.

Mrs. Homer White gave an address and Miss Mildred Fuller a report of the state meeting in Rutland. Ernest Packard has moved from the home of Mrs. Charles Meader on Weston street to the home of Mrs. Emily Harrocks on Main street. Miss Marion Mayo returned Saturday night from Burlington, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday

Uncle Sam's Public Printer

CORNELIUS FORD.

A warm friend of President Wilson and of the New Jersey congressional delegation, Cornelius Ford, of Hoboken, New Jersey, is administering the affairs of the big Government Printing Office as the federal Public Printer. Ford was a member of the New Jersey Legislature when Woodrow Wilson was Governor of the State. He has a record of three years service in that body, has been thirty-five years in the printing business, from apprentice up, and is forty-six years old. He has been Sergeant-at-Arms of the Legislature and Vice-President of the Hoboken School Board.

night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

RANDOLPH CENTER

The Vermont State Agricultural eleven easily defeated Middlebury high school at Randolph Saturday. The features of the game were the six-yard run of Anderson for a touchdown, the all-around playing and catching of forward passes by Clark and the brilliant tackling of Graves. Three rushes sufficed to win the game. The final score was 12 to 0 in favor of the Ags.

E. N. Perry and mother, who have assumed Mr. Valade's tenement house, have returned to their home in Manchester, N. H. The first entertainment in the lecture course will be given at Agricultural hall Friday night by Dr. R. B. Maguire. The State school of agriculture will make an interesting exhibit at the Vermont State corn show to be held at Windsor November 5, 6 and 7.

The C. E. society cleared $11 at the Halloween social. Mrs. Klinger and daughter of Washington, D. C., who have been with her sister, Mrs. Locke, about three weeks, assisting in the care of Dr. Locke, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

Mrs. V. W. Warner. Mrs. William Wood, who has been here for several weeks, returned home Monday. Mrs. J. J. Treble accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Scott, to Barre Sunday night to pass the week.

Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Mrs. V. W. Warner. Mrs. William Wood, who has been here for several weeks, returned home Monday. Mrs. J. J. Treble accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Scott, to Barre Sunday night to pass the week.

Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Mrs. V. W. Warner. Mrs. William Wood, who has been here for several weeks, returned home Monday. Mrs. J. J. Treble accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Scott, to Barre Sunday night to pass the week.

Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Mrs. V. W. Warner. Mrs. William Wood, who has been here for several weeks, returned home Monday. Mrs. J. J. Treble accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Scott, to Barre Sunday night to pass the week.

Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

Robert Terrell was here from New York Thursday and Friday for a brief visit to his cottage. The Halloween party Friday evening at Grange hall was well attended and enjoyed by the children present. The workmen have completed the concrete foundation for the new Grange hall. The selection have purchased a new lighting plant and new furniture for the hall in the school building.

The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Friday evening, November 14, by the Indians Indian band, consisting of eight genuine Indians, seven men and a lady reader from the Quoniam Indian Reservation near Scranton, N. Y., under the personal direction of David Russell Hill, chief of the Quoniam reservation. Mrs. Ashenowicz is visiting in Cambridge, Mass., for a few days.

The Somerville Mill company has sold its mill property to J. D. Leavitt and J. C. Cass. John Harvey, an aged and respected citizen, died at his home Wednesday, Oct. 23. The funeral was held Friday at his late home, the Rev. C. D. Pierce officiating. Mrs. Carrie Kier is visiting friends in Glover. The second entertainment of the lecture course was given Saturday by the Chandler company at East Craftsbury. Catherine Johnston, mother of M. J. Johnston, died over 90 years old Thursday morning at her home in Galway, Friday. A. C. Jackson of Chicago left Saturday for his home accompanied by his mother. The Beaver club gave a reception to Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell Friday evening and presented them with a check.

The meeting of the Mountain Band of Mercy will be given in the town hall Friday evening. Recitations will be given by the children assisted by local talent.

H. H. Newton went to Lynn, Mass., Tuesday to visit his son, F. S. Newton. Edward Rhodes went to Burlington Monday, where she has been in the Mary Fletcher hospital for an operation for appendicitis. E. A. Thomas is in New York. Edward Kendrick came from Roxbury, where he has employment in a store on Tuesday night, for a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Eldredge. The young ladies of Bethany Sunday school are to give a social at the parish house Thursday night. Mrs. H. W. Holden gave a large "500" party Monday night, to which she invited 10 of her friends. The next afternoon she entertained a party of ladies at her home. The party of ladies is soon to give a public card party for the benefit of the society.

Mrs. Robert Willey of Waterville is spending a few days at the home of her son, R. M. Willey. Mrs. J. J. Lindsay returned Wednesday, Oct. 25, from a few days' visit to her sister in Concord, N. H. Frank Dufur went to St. Johnsbury Saturday evening for a short stay.

FINDS GIRL WIFE DEAD BESIDE BABY

Husband Had Ignored Demand for Money in Threatening Letters.